

From: Donna Hebb

Sent: Friday, April 07, 2006 12:27 PM

To: Public Hearing

Subject: Bank of Wal*Mart

Unless and until Wal*Mart improves their way of doing business in the retail area, it would be foolhardy to allow them to open their own bank.

They have a history of employee abuse, create unfriendly-toward-woman policies, they put small local retailers out of business, and they will do the same if they have a bank.

PLEASE attend the hearing and listen to all the witnesses.